

Mystery

A Crime of a Different Stripe — Goldenbaum, Sally.

While no-nonsense mother-to-be Cass Halloran tries downplaying her pregnancy, she joins the Seaside Knitters in knitting an abundance of delicate hats and booties. Meanwhile, terrifying events unfold at the town's art series that puts a chill in their New England fall. A dead body turns up by the wooded shoreline the next day. With a mysterious murder pitting neighbors against each other, Izzy, Birdie, Nell, and Cass find themselves entangled in a dangerous hunt to solve the crime.

Murder Is in the Air — Brody, Frances.

Ever since the war, pubs have been trying to breathe new life back into the business by selecting an employee as local queen to be the face of their industry. This year's queen, Ruth Parnaby, has invited Kate Shackleton and her niece Harriet to accompany her to a garden party thrown in her honor. The drayman at the garden party is found deceased. The horse dealer who sold the pony to the drayman is suspected, but Ruth's father, Slater Parnaby's attempt to dissuade his daughter from the party lingers in Kate's mind. Kate now must decipher the truth.

Murder She Wrote — Fletcher, Jessica.

Jessica Fletcher discovers two sets of bones while undergoing reconstruction of her home. One set is ancient and the other is a year old. Jessica suspects that the remains might be connected. Soon tabloid reporter Tad Hollenbeck arrives in Cabot Cove to write a story about the bones. But when Tad is murdered, Jessica speculates that his arrival, death, and the discovery of the bones are linked. Jessica will have to dig deep into her town's dark history to find the connection between Tad's murder and the bones.

The Mystery of Mrs. Christie* — Benedict, Marie.

When Agatha Christie's car is found wrecked, empty, and abandoned near a natural spring, England is in a frenzy. Over a week later, Agatha reappears, claiming amnesia. She provides no answers for her disappearance. That is, until she writes a strange book about a missing woman, a murderous husband, and a plan to expose the truth. What role did her unfaithful husband play? And what was he not telling investigators?

One For the Books — McKinlay, Jenn.

Love is in the air in Briar Creek as library director Lindsey Norris and boat captain Mike Sullivan are finally tying the knot. When Lindsey and her crafternoon pals head out to Bell Island to see if it can accommodate the ever-expanding guest list, they are horrified to discover a body washed up on the rocky shore. Lindsey recognizes the man as the justice of the peace who was supposed to officiate her wedding ceremony. Now she has to solve the mystery before it ends her happily ever.
